1: Elections are every 2 years. Apportionment is based on each states' population
2: Each state is represented with 2 senators. Senators serve 6-year-terms, but one-third of the seats are up for election every two years
3: Head of state and government, as well as commander-in-chief
4: The state levels can vary from state to state
5: Presidential vetos can be overridden by a two-thirds vote in both house. The Supreme Court can declare laws as unconstitutional and thereby repeal them
